

*The other side
of the story...*

End Housing Hoax

What our readers say...

“We do not need to build any more workforce housing. Simply give teachers, first responders, hospital staff, etc the right of first refusal on existing housing as it comes onto the resale market.

We have no business taxing ourselves to enhance the bottom line of the resort industry by housing their employees. Let them pay a living wage. Taxpayers should not be subsidizing the resort industry.”